Dear Visitor:

Thank you for your inquiry about our programs. I appreciate you considering me as a speaker for your event.

I love meeting new people and hearing about their organizations and events. With your help, I can find out what goals you have for your meeting and the message you wish to get across to your audience. From that information, I will design a program to meet your and your audience's needs so that your meeting will be a dazzling success.

We can also help you market your event. We do this in many ways, through article placement, media interviews, and web site announcements.

The materials in this packet will help you get to know me, my topics, and my programs. Please let me know if you have any questions about what we offer.

I'd love to find out more about your event and how we can work together. Please call or email anytime.

Warm regards,

Sandy Smith
