Soaring to Success: Achieving Your Highest Life Goals
(Keynote, 1-2 hour session, or 3-6 hour workshop)

Listen to an adrenaline-flowing real-life story of the harrowing, humorous, and poignant moments experienced by Sandi while copiloting a small airplane around the world in 1995. How did the opportunity arise? How did she overcome her fears? Sandi tells all.

- Experience what it was like in the cockpit when the solitary engine quits on the very first flight over the frigid Atlantic with no airport in sight.
- Learn about the life-changing, sight-restoring humanitarian work that was performed during the journey.
- Discover how the pilots planned this once-in-a-lifetime dream.
- Hear the formula behind their success and how you can use it to complete your own big, hairy, audacious dreams and live an extraordinary life.
